LEC Mentor

VET Study students must meet the LEC Mentor on the ground floor of the LEC to be marked off the SEQTA roll. The LEC Mentor supervises and assist students with their work during their allocated study period.

The LEC Mentor role involves:

- Building relationships—get to know students, make connections, ask students about progress of work, wellbeing, co-curricular activities, etc.
- VET study help—help with drafting, editing assignments where needed.
- Study area—ensure students are working at the tables on the ground floor of the LEC, not on soft furnishings. No VET students on the first floor.

...and

- Positive environment—maintain a positive work environment for students by roving throughout downstairs of the LEC.
- Liaises with VET Coordinator—check on students' progress.

VET students needing to work in other areas

At times, students may need to work in Design Tech, Art, photography, etc.

- A signed note or email is required from the subject teacher.
- Student must first report to LEC Mentor—LEC Mentor will mark the student off on the VET study roll before they are allowed to go to the other work area.

Who is responsible?

VET matters

- VET booklets
- Study
- Placements
- Catching up on classes/work missed on VET day

YLD or AYLD

Behavioural issues

- Repeated, unacceptable behaviour
- Being disruptive
- Not following reasonable directions

Do note:

- Normal Levels of Support apply for both In-Class and Out-of-Class Behaviour where consequences and processes are mapped out.
- VET students are not allowed to access the LEC Café during their VET study lesson.

and...

- Mobile Devices Policy—no phones to be used during VET study.
- Expectations—Act as 'Ambassadors' of the College at VET providers, both on or off campus.

Finally...

The VET study is a privilege to allow students to catch up on their work and have a Mentor as a support person.

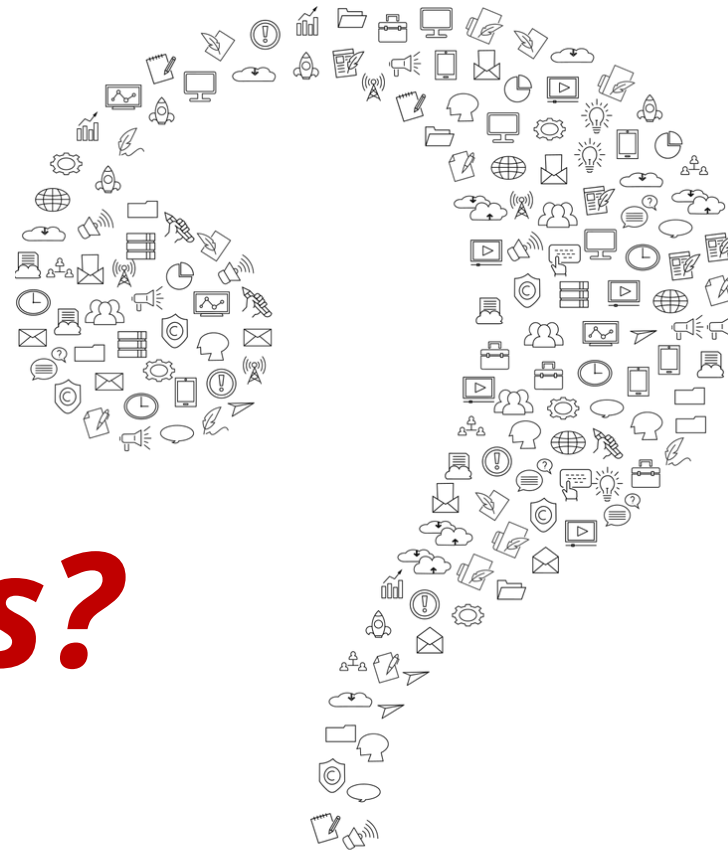

Students who do not comply with the conditions outlined may be placed in a classroom for direct supervision for a period of time, negotiated via YLD and VET Coordinator.

Leaving early due to VET 'frees' will be removed if a student falls behind with their study or VET requirements.
